

who we are & what we do

RUSH events & communications create meaningful experiences through unique customer engagement programs, experiential brand installations and end to conference management. We push boundaries, think out side the square and we work with the best in the business.

We are a small customer service orientated team, and our mission is to ensure our service provides you with the time to focus on your customers.

who we work with

mornington peninsula

From award winning cool climate wineries, designer golf courses and benchmark setting restaurants, to stunning bay vista's and undulating rural charm, the Mornington Peninsula has something for everyone.

Arrive at Flinders Hotel award winning 'Quarters' mid morning to settle in and relax before a late working lunch and afternoon conference session. On conclusion of conference, guests will unwind with pre dinner drinks at the Hotel Bar, followed by a true welcome to the Peninsula with dinner at 'The Deck'.

Following breakfast at leisure, guests have the rare opportunity to experience one of Australia's most highly regarded golf courses - Moonah Links Golf Club. Post golf the afternoon can be enjoyed at leisure to explore the township of Flinders, its historic streetscape, undulating coastline and dramatic scenery.

This evening guests will be treated to a private masterclass in the art of smoking and wood fire BBQ at the famed Red Gum BBQ, Red Hill. Following this hands on experience, guests will enjoy the fruits of their labor plus other iconic dishes - matched with locally brewed beers and wine.

On day three guests will test their yachting skills in a Couta Boat race from Blairgowrie across Port Phillip Bay to the historic coastal township of Queenscliff. On arrival, sailors will be treated to a stunning lunch overlooking the bay from the balcony of the celebrated 360q, followed with a leisurely return sail to Blairgowrie.

For their final dinner, the group will be transferred to the multi- award winning Jackalope Hotel for an unforgettable dining experience at Doot Doot. Following check out the next morning, guests will be transferred home.

Suitable to group sizes ranging from 10 to 20 pax, this bespoke program is flexible pending the experience you want to provide guests. Whether it is for a getaway to reward key stakeholders, an intimate internal staff conference or simply as a wellness retreat for executive staff, RUSH Events will work with you to create the perfect bespoke program to meet your budget and requirements.

Learn the art of low and slow cooking with Pitmaster Martin Goffin of Red Gum BBQ. Martin will guide the group through everything from the basics of the cuts to all things rubs and sauces, followed by a hands on experience with participants trimming and prepping their own cuts. To conclude their Pitmaster experience the group will feast on their BBQ creation alongside a tasting of handpicked local craft beers and wines.

Experience the exhilaration of sailing across the mouth of Port Phillip Bay in a historic Couta Boat, a locally designed vessel which originally trawled the Peninsula coast line in the 1870's. Teams of 6 will compete to the finish line at the Queenscliff harbour, to then disembark for a short walk to 360q, Queenscliff's celebrated modern eatery overlooking the bay.

The perfect backdrop for your farewell dinner - Doot Doot Doot's menu encompasses undulating vineyard covered landscapes synonymous with the region, whilst embracing the best of local produce presented in a world class setting.
