Virtual Conferencing

overview

In response to the ever evolving social and business landscapes due to COVID-19, RUSH events & communications present to you a conferencing solution that ensures your company meets its social responsibilities whilst delivering a seamless, high engagement conference experience - with zero face to face contact.

Providing full service conference management, RUSH events will provide content creation, guest speakers, website creation, online registrations & workshops, as well as project manage the AV and IT requirements in collaboration with our industry partners.
